Mark 16:1-8

LEAVING
A MARK

STORIES OF THE UNSTOPPABLE JESUS

JESUS

TRUSTING AND TREASURING HIM SUPREME...TOGETHER

1. The crucifixion of Jesus is about substitution.

- His death provides a way to avoid God's wrath against sin.
- His life provides a way to acquire God's righteousness.

On the cross God treated Jesus like He had lived my life so that He could treat me as if I had lived the life of Christ.

2. The resurrection of Jesus is about transformation.

The resurrection is meant to change your mind.

Think about this:

- Nobody argued that the tomb was empty
- This one messianic movement survived
- The eye-witnesses were women
- Resurrection was not conceivable in the 1st century

2. The resurrection of Jesus is about transformation.

Think about this:

- James the brother of Jesus believed he was resurrected
- The disciples went from being cowards to being martyrs
- Over 500 people saw the resurrected Christ
- For Jewish believers the day of worship changed

2. The resurrection of Jesus is about transformation.

- The resurrection is meant to change your heart.
 - “But go tell His disciples and Peter...”
 - Jesus gives His disciples a word of grace: I am alive and your failures are forgotten and your debt is paid!
- The resurrection is meant to change your life.
 - The resurrection turns our fear into joy.
 - The resurrection turns our mess into a mission.

And He who sits on the throne said,
“Behold, I am making all things
new.” – Revelation 21:5a
